James Halliday's Australian Wine Companion 2009

"Clean, crisp and with a nice creamy mouthfeel; a fresh aperitif style."

The Age (19/07/2011)

"Taltarni's winemaking at Moonambel in Victoria's Pyrenees is charged to Loïc Le Calvez, an affable, open-minded Frenchman who imparts a certain Gallic feel to wines such as this. Citrus, straw, light tropical fruit and almondy elements on the nose are subtly complex, and it tastes clean and dry with fine texture and a bone-dry finish."

Food idea: Grilled fish"
