

TALTARNI

Taltarni Taché 2009

Rating: 89

James Halliday Australian Wine Companion 2012

“This heavenly, pink-tinged sparkler (taché is French for stained) is one of the most delightful rosés around. Shut your eyes and have a sniff and you will detect roses and strawberries, open them and you might expect a much darker shade of wine. This magical fizz mesmerises all who taste it—three cheers to Taltarni for coming up with this cocktail many moons ago and delivery is with unerring accuracy every year.”
